DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Hampel or Rapisarda et al. Hampel or Rapisarda et al. discloses the claimed invention except for the claimed parameters. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to for the grate of Hampel or Rapisarda et al. to cover no more than 40% of the spanned area, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233. Note, it is noted that under section 103, not only are the teachings of the prior art taken into consideration, but also the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art. In re Luck, 177 USPQ 523 (CCPA 1973). That is the say, it is not invention to design the opening of the grate so that a particular size object will not fall through it.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 3749

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
